“Girls just want to have fun”

At least that’s what I’ve been told!

The Links is please to have Holly Gordon and staff introduce gender specific golf clinics aimed at girls between the ages of 7-18. Holly and staff will work with the girls each week on the many aspects of golf, from rules, etiquette, and outfits, to fundamentals, technique, and execution. The girls will touch on a new subject each time they meet...it’s the perfect way to get girls interested in “The Game of a Lifetime.” So start their journey this spring with Holly and staff.
